1. Principal accounting policies

This condensed consolidated interim financial information for the six months ended 30th June 2020 has been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKAS") 34 "Interim financial reporting" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and applicable requirements of Appendix 16 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. This condensed consolidated interim financial information should be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2019, which were prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards ("HKFRS").

The financial information relating to the year ended 31st December 2019 that is included in this preliminary announcement of interim results for the six months ended 30th June 2020 as comparative information does not constitute the Company's statutory annual consolidated financial statements for that year but is derived from those financial statements. Further information relating to these statutory financial statements required to be disclosed in accordance with section 436 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622) is as follows:

The Company has delivered the financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2019 to the Registrar of Companies as required by section 662(3) of, and Part 3 of Schedule 6 to, the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622).

The Company's auditor has reported on those financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2019. The auditor's report was unqualified; did not include a reference to any matters to which the auditor drew attention by way of emphasis without qualifying its report; and did not contain a statement under sections 406(2), 407(2) or (3) of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622).

The accounting policies applied by the Group are consistent with those of the annual financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2019, except for the adoption of amended standard as set out below.

(a) Amended standard adopted by the Group

The Group has early adopted HKFRS 16 (Amendment) "COVID-19-related rent concessions" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1st June 2020) which allows lessee to elect not to assess whether a rent concession occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic is a lease modification. Such practical expedient applies only to rent concessions occurring as a direct consequence of the COVID-19 pandemic and only if all of the following conditions are met:

- The change in lease payments results in revised consideration for the lease that is substantially the same as, or less than the consideration for the lease immediately preceding the change;
- Any reduction in lease payments affects only payments originally due on or before 30th June 2021; and
- There is no substantive change to other terms and conditions of the lease.

All of the COVID-19 related rent concessions amounted to HK$729,000 have been credited to the condensed consolidated interim income statement within "selling and marketing costs".

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OPERATING RESULTS

Turnover and gross profit

Since the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic in early 2020, the apparel retail industry suffered a heavy blow and the Group's business has also been severely affected.

The Group's turnover for the first half of the year was HK$539,403,000, representing a decrease of approximately 28% from HK$744,851,000 of the same period last year. Selling amounts from various business operations were all lower than the same period last year. Among them, income from the apparel and licensing businesses dropped significantly, while the overall income from property investment recorded a single-digit decrease.

Gross profit for the period was HK$290,648,000, representing a decrease of approximately 33%, from HK$432,833,000 of the same period last year. In view of the uncertain selling environment after the outbreak of pandemic, the impairment provision for inventories as included in the cost of sales for the period increased remarkably to HK$45,920,000 (reversal of the provision for impairment of HK$1,294,000 of the same period last year). Excluding the impact of the impairment provision for inventories, gross profit margin of the apparel business was approximately 55.8%, an increase of approximately 4.2 percentage points from 51.6% of the same period last year, which was mainly due to less discounted sales during the period.

Operating expenses and operating profit

Selling and marketing costs for the period were HK$145,861,000, decreased by approximately 31% from the same period last year. In addition to the decrease in sales-related expenses due to the decline in sales, the pandemic has forced the cancellation or delay of many commercial activities. The Group's administrative expenses for the period were HK$68,941,000, which dropped by 18% from HK$83,940,000 of the same period last year. The decrease in expenses was mainly attributable to the Group's efforts to reduce expenditures under the pandemic, and the fee remissions from government authorities during the period.

During the period, the Group recorded fair value losses on investment properties of HK$18,520,000, compared with fair value gains of HK$49,261,000 of the same period last year.

Operating profit for the period amounted to HK$57,326,000, a significant decrease of approximately 69% from HK$186,365,000 of the same period last year. The operating profit margin was about 11%, which was significantly lower than the 25% of the same period last year.

Profit attributable to owners of the Company

The Group's profit attributable to owners of the Company for the period was HK$55,792,000, decreased by 66% from HK$163,329,000 of the same period last year. Profit for the period would be HK$70,111,000 if the net fair value losses after tax on investment properties of HK$14,319,000 were excluded. Such profit marked a decrease of 40% from HK$117,018,000 of the same period last year if the net fair value gains after tax on investment properties of HK$46,311,000 were excluded.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Apparel Business

China Mainland and Hong Kong SAR Markets

Owing to the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic, economic activities in China Mainland ground to a halt before the Chinese New Year in late January. To observe the Central Government's various anti-pandemic measures and to safeguard the safety and health of our staff and customers, many outlets operated by the Group or our distributors had to either suspend business or shorten their business hours. Economic activities were started to resume not until the second quarter of the year when the pandemic showed signs of coming under control and lockdown restrictions were gradually lifted.

In China Mainland, the Group has continued to conduct its apparel operation primarily through wholesaling to distributors in various cities and provinces, through self-operated retail shops (including factory outlets) located mainly in Guangzhou, Shanghai, Beijing and Chongqing, as well as through e-commerce and custom-ordering. Overall turnover for the period amounted to HK$411,499,000, representing a year-on-year decrease of approximately 29%. In terms of RMB, the decrease was about 26%.

Regarding our wholesaling operation, the Group's distributors were facing extremely hostile market conditions because of the epidemic. With sales and business disrupted, support from the Group was urgently needed. To tide our distributors over, the Group agreed to cancel some of their orders for 2020 spring and summer products and to grant additional sales return allowances to them. Further, the pre-order amount for our 2020 spring and summer collections made in the sales fair last August was lower than the relevant collections last year. As a result, sales to distributors registered a year-on-year decrease of about 27% in RMB.

The Group followed measures in reducing human interaction in our self-operated retailing operation. Many of our retail shops have shortened their business hours or even closed temporarily since the end of January. Even when business could reopen in the second quarter following the slowdown of the spread of the virus, general apparel retail market environment was still well behind the pre-pandemic level and performance still had room for improvement. As a result, sales of self-operated retail shops (excluding factory outlets) in RMB dropped by approximately 37% when compared with the corresponding period last year.

The pandemic also affected the sales of our factory outlets seriously. Sales in RMB decreased year-on-year by approximately 25%. There was an increase in gross profit margin for the period following a lower sale proportion of off-season stocks that carried higher discounts.

At the end of the period, the Group's apparel products were sold through approximately 880 retail outlets in China Mainland, among which around 100 were self-operated (including 35 factory outlets). Impacted by the pandemic, about 40 retail outlets mainly operated by our distributors had to be closed for operational reasons.

During the review period, the Group's e-commerce was also adversely affected especially in the early days of the pandemic. Demand for apparel lagged far behind necessity goods and deliveries were obstructed by various lockdown measures. As a result, online sales for the first quarter fell and did not improve until the second quarter. Sales in RMB for the period declined by approximately 22%. The focus remained to be the sale of special selected items, which continued to account for approximately 90% of the Group's total e-commerce sales. During the review period, e-commerce made up about 35% of the Group's China Mainland apparel sales.

Our operation in custom-made corporate uniforms was also badly hit. A year-on-year decrease of approximately 33% in RMB was recorded. Business gradually stabilized in the second quarter.

Inventories on hand posed a higher risk in view of the slow clearance of off-season stocks and the grim market outlook. The Group therefore increased the provision for impairment of relevant inventories. The provision in China Mainland amounted to approximately HK$42,768,000 for the period as against a reversal of provision by approximately HK$2,694,000 for same period last year. At the end of the period, net inventory balance after impairment provision in China Mainland stood at approximately HK$141,681,000, or about 36% lower than that at the end of last year.

The review period saw the Group continuing to grant licenses for distribution of shoes, leather goods, undergarments, woollen sweaters and casual wear in the China Mainland market. In light of the heavy blow dealt by the pandemic, special fee reductions were granted to the licensees. As a result, licensing income for the period decreased year-on-year by approximately 37% to stand at HK$26,337,000.

Singapore and Malaysia Markets

As soon as the peak season before Chinese New Year came to an end in late January, the Singapore and Malaysia markets were impacted by the outbreak of COVID-19 and suffered a sharp decline in sales. As the pandemic spread further, Singapore imposed a lockdown in early April and the related measures were gradually lifted not until mid-June. The Group's local retail business was therefore completely shut down for over two months. As a result, apparel sales amounted to only HK$15,864,000 for the period, representing a year-on-year decrease of approximately 49%.

At the end of the review period, there were a total of 5 Goldlion shops and 17 counters in Singapore, or down by 1 in number when compared with the end of last year. Over in Malaysia, there were a total of 7 counters, or down by 4 when compared with the end of last year.

Excluding the effects of provision for impairment of inventories, overall profit margin for the period stood at about 44.9%, which was slightly lower than the 46.7% for the corresponding period last year. With stocks clearance slackened by business disruption and the market unlikely to improve in the short term, provision for impairment of inventories amounted to approximately HK$3,152,000 for the review period, which was higher than the HK$1,399,000 for the same period last year.

Including net rental income from investment properties of HK$241,000 (HK$250,000 for the same period last year), operating loss of the Group's Singapore and Malaysia apparel operation for the period stood at HK$8,840,000, falling further from last year's HK$6,516,000.

Property Investment and Development

The Group's investment property portfolio had no significant changes since the end of last year. With the pandemic dampening both the Hong Kong and the China Mainland property markets, fair value losses on investment properties recognized by the Group after independent professional valuations amounted to HK$18,520,000. The losses were mainly coming from the Group's property holding of Goldlion Digital Network Centre in Guangzhou. Fair value gains of the same period last year stood at HK$49,261,000.

Rental income and building management fees for the period amounted to HK$67,579,000 and HK$18,124,000 respectively, the total of which decreased by about 7% when compared with the corresponding period last year.

Regarding the Group's Goldlion Digital Network Centre in Guangzhou, rental income and building management fees fell by approximately 15% in RMB. This was attributable to shrinking demand under the pandemic. The slowdown in leasing activities resulted in a gap between leases for some of the premises. A further factor was the need to grant rental concessions to some struggling tenants. Overall occupancy rate for the period was maintained at about 83%, which was also lower than last year's 90%.

Also in Guangzhou, the properties in Yuan Village generated rental income and building management fees amounting to approximately HK$4,510,000 for the period. At present, about 60% of the floor area has already been leased out.

In Shenyang, leasing of Goldlion Commercial Building inevitably bore the brunt of COVID-19. Turnover rental slumped since some tenants could not open for business. This was aggravated by the need to offer rental concessions to individual tenant. As a result, rental income and building management fees decreased by approximately 8% in RMB.

In Hong Kong, following incessant social events in the latter half of last year, the pandemic dealt a further blow to the leasing of the Group's local properties. Overall rental income and building management fees generated from Goldlion Holdings Centre in Shatin fell by about 6%. There was not only a gap between leases for certain premises but also a need to offer rental concessions to individual tenant. Occupancy rate stood at about 90% for the period.

Also, the property at No. 3 Yuk Yat Street, To Kwa Wan, generated income in the amount of HK$4,973,000 compared with HK$116,000 for the corresponding period last year when leasing had just begun. At present, approximately 85% of the floor area has been leased out.

Regarding the development project "Goldlion Garden" in Meixian, construction works commenced in March last year. To be carried out in two phases, this primarily residential development comprises 11 high-rise buildings and 26 low-rise ones, as well as ancillary facilities. There has been minor construction delay since some of the workers could not return to work under the pandemic situation. During the period, construction expenditure increased by about HK$51,136,000.

PROSPECTS

Since its outbreak early this year, COVID-19 has quickly spread globally to become a pandemic. The quarantine and social distancing measures taken by governments around the world have brought economic activities to a standstill. With economic recession reaching record-high levels in many countries, the negative impact of the pandemic on global economy is simply unimaginable. For a market that is already battered by deteriorating China-US relations, the road to full recovery is likely to be long and winding. Faced with all these uncertainties, the Group will remain calm and concentrate on what we can do within our power.

Following stringent preventive measures taken by the Central Government, the pandemic has shown signs of slowing down in China Mainland. However, precautionary measures are still in place for fear of a possible outbreak of a new wave of pandemic. As such, it will be some time before market conditions for apparel retail can pick up. To ensure excessive stocks tie up in our distribution channel can be realized effectively, the Group will adjust the supplies to our distributors depending on circumstances. A continuing decrease in wholesale amount in the second half of the year is therefore expected. At the same time, the Group will continue to provide appropriate support to our distributors so that we can weather the storm in close partnership. The Group may also temporarily receive selling operations of certain distributors that have difficulties in continuing their businesses. It is expected that the pre-order amount for the 2021 spring and summer collections will not be satisfactory.

To boost sales, the Group will maximize the role played by e-commerce and factory outlets to clear stocks on hand.

In Singapore, the Group will speed up clearance of stocks that have been built up because of the local lockdown. In addition, efforts will be made to reduce operating costs and to adjust the number of outlets in the hope of minimizing losses.

As for the latter half of the year, prospects for our investment properties are not going to be optimistic. Leasing is expected to be sluggish while downward pressure on rentals is likely to remain. The Group will adjust its operating strategies as appropriate to minimize the impact. Regarding the development project "Goldlion Garden" in Meixian, presale may have to be postponed until early next year to avert any negative effects associated with the pandemic.

For the time being, the worst is not yet behind us. There will be all sorts of challenges arising from the uncertainties and sudden changes in the market. Despite this mounting pressure on our business, the Group is confident that our strong foundation and stable operating strategies, coupled with the hard work of our staff, will help us overcome the adversity.
